

Literacy and Economic Development

(Mahendra K Patidar, IPE, Hyderabad)

Literacy plays a major role to develop a nation. It spread awareness among the people. It leads to good employment opportunities. If literacy level is high in a nation, then there will be more number of entrepreneurs and the flow of money will be huge and it finally put a great impact on nation's economy. The economic prosperity and literacy are the two directly proportional procedures which have a great influence on each other. As a country's workforce is educated, skilled, organized, competitive and wanting to go ahead, no one can stop such an economy from being prosperous. As the people of a country are literate they will work much better for their own and as they will work to satisfy their needs, simultaneously country's economy will grow and develop. It is necessary in today's rapidly changing era to increase the percentage of literacy and this literacy pay through develop a country.
